EUROPE TOUR

THREE REASONS TO CHOOSE TRAVELBOUND EDUCATION

1. WE HELP YOU ORGANISE YOUR SCHOOL TOUR

Your role as tour leader can seem daunting (especially on top of your busy job as a teacher), so we will provide you with any of the following items to optimize your tour launch.

- Step-by-Step launch process (how to get your trip off the ground)
- Letter to parents template (you can just fill in the blanks)
- Sister school partnerships (We can help connect the dots for you)
- Posters (to advertise your trip)
- Risk Assessments (to help you complete any necessary paperwork)
- PowerPoint Presentation (promote your destination!)
- Fundraising information (to help families kick-start their campaigns)

2. WE HAVE PROVEN EXPERTSE IN TRAVEL

Every year 20,000 happy, worldly and educationally enriched students return from subject related tours which Travelbound Education has helped custom build for each school. We're deeply proud of our solid reputation built from over 25 years in the travel education industry. Experience which we use to provide personal, friendly and expert service, which helps make your tour idea a reality.

3. OUR COMMITMENT TO SAFETY AND SECURITY

- Safety Management Systems – Our risk assessments are carried out using reliable, accredited and independently verified resources. This audit process is used for all accommodation, excursions and transport providers.
- On-tour representation (with 24/7 support) – A Travelbound representative will meet you in-country, and when on tour you will have access to a 24-hour emergency duty office to speak with highly trained staff.
- Financial Security - As part of the world's largest leisure company, TUI Travel PLC, Travelbound provides financial protection to all school groups and further, we are fully ATOL bonded.
- Worldwide offices, global reach – UK, Australia, New Zealand, Asia, Middle East and USA
- Responsible travel – It is our responsibility as an educational tour operator to consider the environment, economy and culture of our destinations as of paramount importance, and our very own eco-tourism specialist is dedicated to help reduce our impact.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT

This tour is a mini-project, and to give this project the best chance of success:

1. Take 10-minutes to review this itinerary and let us know of any amendments (or ideas!) to improve it.
2. Confirm an Itinerary and provisional Departure Date to allow the opportunity for Travelbound to create a customized quote that fits your school criteria.
3. Money matters...so build in a buffer between the amount per student and your final number (Use this to buy additional meals, pay for public transport or shout the students a special treat in-country!).
4. Raise interest with students and families allowing maximum time for families to get on board.
5. Confirm your booking: Contact us to confirm student interest with completed booking forms and provisional deposits to lock in your quoted amount.
6. Coordinate the tour: Your tour coordinator will be your main point of contact to discuss the finer details of your trip. They will forward a confirmation pack and book all the components of your tour ensuring a trip of a lifetime.

The Memorial is a rich teaching aid to help students study our shared past and introduces emotion and memory, using dynamic and diverse educational activities. Pegasus Bridge and Museum- Pegasus Bridge was captured by British forces on the night of 5-6 June 1944 in order to protect the eastern flank of the landing operations at Sword Beach. At the Pegasus Bridge Museum, students can learn about the events of its capture and the forces that carried it out via displays of historic items such as weapons and gliders, documents and photographs. Dinner at the Chateau Overnight Chateau Du Molay

Day 5 Meal Inclusions: Breakfast Lunch Dinner	CHATEAU DU MOLAY (Normandy) Breakfast at Chateau and pick up packed lunch <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Omaha Beach, US Cemetery: The Normandy American Cemetery and Memorial covers 172.5 acres and contains the graves of 9,387 military dead, most of whom lost their lives in the D-Day landings and ensuing operations. The memorial, set around a bronze statue, shows maps and narratives of the military operations. Centre staff are available to answer students' questions. • Arromanches 360 degree cinema-The new Arromanches 360 film co-financed by the Region Basse-Normandie and the Memorial de Caen was produced by the authors of the hugely successful French television series, Apocalypse. This film is projected in High Definition on 9 screens and tells the story of the terrible Battle of Normandy thanks to archive images gathered from around the world. This film is a tribute to soldiers from all countries and to the 20,000 civilians who were killed during this battle for the liberation of Europe, a battle which gave rise to so much hope. • D-Day Museum, Arromanches- In the heart of the D-Day beaches, Arromanches is renowned for its 'Mulberry' artificial Harbour. Its remains speak of the remarkable technical feat of taking 600,000 tonnes of concrete and equipment across the Channel in wartime to serve as a base for Allied troops. The museum uses models, videos and a diorama that movingly bring life to the displays. • Traditional French Cuisine: On the list of things to do in France, trying frogs' legs and snails is near the top. After a long day the students and staff can opt for traditional frogs' legs and snails as an accompaniment to an evening meal. This allows the adventurous students a chance to taste a traditional French delicacy. Overnight Chateau Du Molay
Day 6 Meal Inclusions: Breakfast Lunch	CHATEAU DU MOLAY— SOMME Breakfast at Chateau and pick up packed lunch <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Coach Transfer to Somme accommodation • Beaumont Hamel- The village was one of the fortress holds situated behind the German lines on the first of July 1916. The attack by the Newfoundland Regiment on this day is commemorated in the Newfoundland Park along with preserved trenches and a striking Caribou memorial, the regiment's emblem. After leaving their trenches the regiment was trapped by German machine gun fire. There were only 68 survivors making this one of the bloodiest battles of The Somme. • Ulster Tower- This is a Somme battlefield memorial to the men of the 36th Division who suffered horrendous losses on the first of July 1916. The Ulster Tower is a replica of St Helen's Tower, which sits in the grounds of the Clondeboye Estate in Northern Ireland where much of the division trained. Overnight Somme
Day 7 Meal Inclusions: Breakfast	SOMME—YPRES Breakfast at Hotel <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wellington Quarry-Arras- This underground museum is an affecting commemoration to the thousands of British Army and Dominion Forces soldiers who survived under Arras during the war. Students can go 20m down into the network of World War I tunnels that connect to tunnels and quarries of the middle ages. Guided tours include a descent in a glass lift that reveals the fascinating rock strata. • Coach Transfer to Ypres

Day 11 Meal Inclusions: Breakfast	BERLIN Breakfast at Hotel <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • East Side Gallery- East Berliners breached the Wall on 9 November 1989, and between February and June of 1990, 118 artists created unique works of art on its longest-remaining section. This open-air gallery serves as a memorial for freedom. One of the best-known works, by Russian artist Dmitri Vrubel, depicts Brezhnev and Honnecker (the former East German leader) kissing. • Checkpoint Charlie Museum- Checkpoint Charlie, the most well-known of the border crossings between East and West, is now one of Berlin's most popular tourist attractions. At the Checkpoint Charlie Museum unique artefacts including many of the contraptions used by those who tried to cross illegally, and works inspired by the division, will vividly bring the past to life for your students. • Black Box- Documenting the history of Berlin's most famous border crossing, the Black Box at Checkpoint Charlie also highlights the symbolic significance of the Wall in the division between Germany and the rest of Europe. Through the use of photographs and media stations, students will be able to interpret events, emotions and public reaction to life inside East Germany. • The Holocaust Memorial- Located in the heart of Berlin, this memorial serves as a reminder of the many lives lost during the Holocaust. 2,711 concrete pillars make up the memorial with underground information centres providing students with an insight into this horrific event as well as listing the names of all known Jewish Holocaust victims. Overnight Berlin
Day 12 Meal Inclusions: Breakfast	BERLIN Breakfast at Hotel <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hohenschönhausen Memorial Centre (Stasi prison museum) - Between 1951 and 1989 the Stasi secret police used this site as a detention centre for un-sentenced suspects. Holding mainly political prisoners, it was infamous for its regime of physical and psychological torture meted out to inmates. It is now a memorial museum with rooms, surveillance technology and interiors as they were before the fall of Communism. • Olympic Stadium- A guide will tell your group all about the German architectural and sports history of the Olympia stadium, built for the 1936 Summer Olympics, and Olympia Park. Enjoy the view from the top of the Glockenturn bell tower and browse the exhibition at the Langemarckhall. • Free Afternoon/Evening • Coach transfer back to Hotel Overnight Berlin
Day 13 Meal Inclusions: Breakfast	BERLIN → KRAKOW Breakfast at Hotel <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Coach Transfer to Airport • Depart on flight to Krakow • Arrive in Krakow • Transfer to Hotel for Check in Overnight Krakow

AMMENDMENTS AND CANCELLATIONS

Changes are permitted and any additional charges will be assessed at time of change. If you wish to cancel or amend all or part of your tour you should advise us in writing (by letter, email or fax) as soon as possible. A cancellation or amendment is effective only when received in writing by the company from the group contact who signed the booking form. Any new person added to the booking must provide a signed acknowledgement. PLEASE NOTE: If any cancellation reduces the number of paying group members below the minimum number required for a particular tour price or concession (including free places), the invoice will be adjusted accordingly for all remaining group members.

TOUR COST GUARANTEE

Once your tour has been booked and first deposit paid, Travelbound guarantee that the price of your tour is fixed. This means that your tour price is not subject to any unpredictable extra costs associated with currency fluctuations. Please note, as this is a quotation only, we are not holding any of your travel arrangements. To secure your booking you need to provide written confirmation of the tour itinerary, student/staff numbers and overall cost as approved.
